About the Show

Confetti: Pretty, but a bit of a mess is a fun, nostalgic show about learning to embrace your imperfections. The premise is that like Confetti, it might be a little bit messy, but it's cause to celebrate because your flaws are what shapes you and makes you beautiful.

Adapting the songs of iconic bands such as Destiny's Child, Spice Girls and N'Sync, as well as Aussie favourites, such as Savage Garden and Bachelor Girl, Rose will take her audience back to the days of singing in their bedrooms with a hairbrush as a microphone, all parodied with new hilarious lyrics about finding your feet and your voice growing up in a world that seems judgemental and overwhelming.

It follows Ashy's true coming of age story learning to deal with unsolicited unhelpful advice on how to lose weight, low self esteem, falling in love with Gay best friends, hilarious (and so terrible its almost unbelievable) dating stories, issues with money and alcoholism, trust issues and an obsession with drag (which culminates in a fabulous drag reveal).

Confetti: Pretty but a bit of a mess delivers a message of self-love, showered in all things that sparkle.

Do you feel like a giant mess? Like you've not quite got it together?

If you're about catchy pop bangers (especially the 90's, Backstreet boys, Spice girls, Vengaboys) , have ever had a terrible boyfriend/girlfriend, had a bit of an issue with alcohol, an obsession with drag queens or have ever been body shamed ... Then this show is for you!!

It's just like Confetti, it's being a mess but not being ashamed of it because that's what is truly beautiful. Come along for a night of pop anthems, hilarity and see living proof that it's called a trash can for a reason, not a trash cannot.
